

DELIGHTFUL DARTMOOR Sunday February 23rd 2020

We made our way to Whiddon Down for our first coffee stop.

Then riding over the moors on the outskirts of Dartmoor arriving at Taverstock following on to Yelverton.

Made our way around the Burrator reservoir, very pretty here with lots of Dartmoor ponies to dodge!

Left the reservoir following the moors road to arrive at Prince Town.

There we stopped at the Old Police Station, cafe/restaurant for a welcome Sunday lunch!

Still on the moors we travelled past Venford Reservoir where there were more Dartmoor ponies to admire.

Took the homeward road and stopped at the Sidmouth Donkey Sanctuary for our last coffee stop.

Leaving the sanctuary we stayed on the coast road via Lyme/West Bay/Weymouth.

Weather dry with plenty of sunshine, (good job we didn't take notice of the forecast)!

Everyone enjoyed being out in the fresh air on their bikes!

Cheers Tony (Pan Euro)
