

LACOCK January 26th 2020

Had a later start on this ride out.

Headed for Amesbury for our first coffee stop at the Friar Tuck Cafe.

Well refreshed we made our way past Silbury Hill and as we were nearby we rode down to Avebury Stone Circles. Quite busy for this time of year, staying on the A4 towards Lacock.

Interesting buildings to look around. We also chose to have our lunch there.

Afterwards we headed on through Bradford-on-Avon towards home.

A very pleasant day along with pleasant company!
