

LACOCK

Sunday July 25th 2021

Our first coffee stop of the day was at Amesbury.

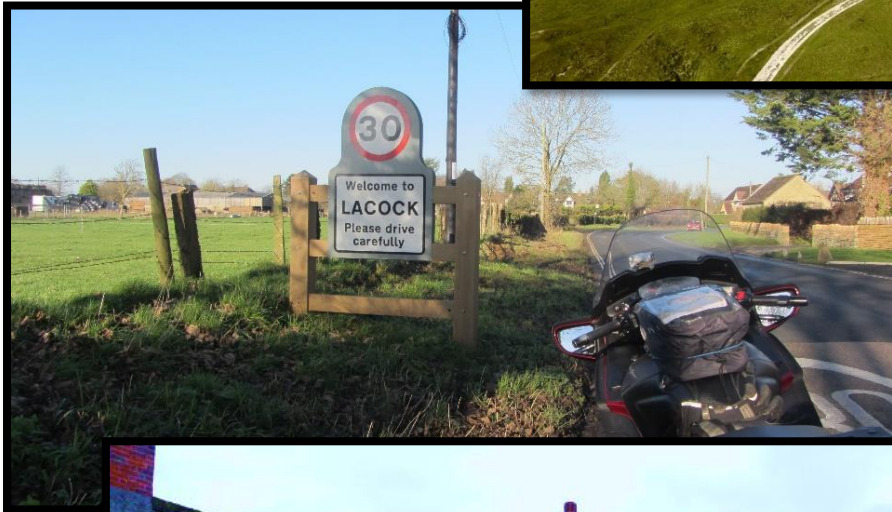

We were planning to stop at the Friar Tuck Café but due to Covid it was closed.

Made our way to Avebury Stone Circles passing Bilberry Hill on the way there.

Quite busy there but plenty of parking available for bikes.

On to Lacock, visiting the lovely old houses and streets which feature in some famous films. What a lovely place to have lunch!

On our way home passing through the scenic Wiltshire countryside. Weather hot and sunny all day!
